Glen Eagle Wealth®

Glen Eagle Wealth, LLC (“GEW” or “we”) is a broker-dealer registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) and a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”). We are an affiliate of Glen Eagle Advisors (“GEA”), a Registered Investment Adviser. GEW provides services independent of, as well as in connection with GEA’s investment product offerings of investment products, separately managed accounts and the buying and selling of securities. Both GEA and GEW, as well as the associated trading desk, are 100% women owned and WBENC certified.

Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

GEW offers brokerage services to a range of both institutional and retail investors. Our offerings to investors are limited to the Products mentioned below that can be managed by or independent of GEA. We may discuss the Products offered by GEA, and discuss our views and convictions regarding market trends, the investing environment, strategies and products. We collect information necessary to determine, or engage in any determinations regarding, whether an investment in any Product is suitable for, or in the best interests of, any particular investor given that investor’s broader investment goals, financial needs, other investments, or other needs. Investors must make the ultimate decision whether to invest in any Product that we offer. Once GEW places an investor in a Product, we provide ongoing monitoring of the investor’s investment in such Product.

What are your legal obligations to me? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

GEW is affiliated with GEA, an investment advisory firm registered with the SEC. This affiliation may create conflicts of interest. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can impact the services we provide.

Registered personnel of GEW, including senior management, compliance, back-office operations and brokers, may also engage in the activities on behalf of GEA and such work may be provided at the expense of GEW. In addition, registered personnel of GEW may recommend services offered by GEA which directly or indirectly benefit the recommending registered person. Clients of GEW have the option to become clients of GEA and vice versa. Available investment products and vehicles offered by both firms will be discussed with each client on an individual basis and recommendations will be made strictly with the client's personal and financial goals in mind. For an additional discussion of potential conflicts of interest please see GEA's Form ADV available on our website www.gleneagleadv.com and/or contact your representative or GEW's Chief Compliance Officer at 609-631-8231.

How might your conflicts of interest affect me?

How do your financial representatives, (registered brokers) make money?

Each of our registered brokers may receive, a salary and other regular annual compensation, an annual bonus, as determined by senior management or a percentage of commissions earned on transactions in accounts they service which could incentivize such broker to sell as much as possible.

Do you or your registered representatives have legal or disciplinary history?

No. Visit Investor.gov/CRS for a free and simple search tool to research us and your registered representative.
